Wealth Management Experience

Driving Productivity and Business Growth While Reducing Risk

Home office management of asset manager relationships requires regular coordination, data and document collection, and due diligence, often relying on emails, spreadsheets, and legacy SharePoint structures for execution and tracking.

FLX's Wealth Management Experience (WME) offers a better way.

Through personalized workflows within FLX's open-architecture network, each wealth manager invites their asset manager partners and prospective partners to engage virtually in the ways most important to them – to collect data and/or product collateral, communicate new policies, announce events, and more.

A Customized Network to Simplify and Centralize a Fragmented Ecosystem

Current Needs WME's Solution

Increasingly strict oversight of asset manager partners

Centralized and permissioned access:

One central location for RFIs, multi-media commentary, and dynamic firm and product information

Data collection and storage

Intelligent document management:

An intuitive document management system to securely share, organize, retrieve, and archive files

Manual communications and coordination

Automated workflows and enhanced collaboration:

Digitally share platform eligibility criteria and policies, announce and track events, and communicate broadly via notification-based processes

Evolving business economics and fiduciary concerns

Engagement and solutions-based partner economics:

Manage partner/vendor programs for asset managers and solutions providers engaging in your network

WME offers tangible productivity enhancements and efficiency through:

An intuitive document management system, enabling home offices and their vendors to securely share, organize, retrieve, and archive files with ease

Platform notifications and announcements to conduct due diligence, request information, and communicate news and events

Digitized workflows, eliminating inefficient processes, reducing key-person risk, and creating capacity

Consolidated administrative processes, workflows, and relationship management responsibilities

Controlled access for your advisors to approved content and other community members

An alternative path towards building revenue through FLX's Solutions Exchange

FLX Networks' Wealth Management Experience enables wealth management home offices to upgrade manual, inefficient, and outdated processes and achieve new levels of efficiency and operating scale.
